CHAPTER _____

An act relating to the Los Angeles County Superior Court.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SB 1696, Dunn. Los Angeles County Superior Court: employees.

Existing law provides that each trial court may establish a salary range for each of its employee classifications, and considerations shall include, but are not limited to, local market conditions and other local compensation-related issues such as difficulty of recruitment or retention.

This bill would require the Los Angeles County Superior Court to pay each employee in a bargaining unit represented by any specified employee organization an amount equivalent to the additional amount the employee would have received if the reclassification raise the employee received on October 1, 2005, had been retroactive to August 1, 2005.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Los Angeles County Superior Court shall pay each employee in a bargaining unit represented by any of the following employee organizations an amount equivalent to the additional amount the employee would have received if the reclassification raise the employee received on October 1, 2005, had been retroactive to August 1, 2005:

(a) American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees Local 276, Mediators and Evaluators.

(b) American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees Local 575, The Los Angeles County Superior Court Clerks Association.

(c) American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees Local 910, The Los Angeles Superior Court Legal Professional Unit.

(d) American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees Local 3271, The Los Angeles Superior Court Professional Employees.

(e) American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees Local 3302, The Los Angeles Superior Court Clerical.
